UPDATE ON THE NEW DOOR PROJECT AT AACS!

The updating and replacement of the wooden doors at Alfred Almond began during the April Spring Break. The new secure, energy-efficient doors are an exact replica of the unique wooden oak doors, keeping the original look!

A Message From the Alumni Association President

Dear AACCS Alumni:

Life at Alfred Almond does not end when you graduate; it continues, develops and succeeds.

During the course of my years on the Board of the Alfred Almond Alumni Association and the past three years as President, I have enjoyed every moment of serving and contributing to the advancement of Alfred Almond Central School graduates. The AA Alumni Association Board members, past and present, are very proud to be associated with AACCS. 80 years old is definitely worthy of a celebration.

The primary objectives of the Alumni Association are to increase ways in which we interact and build closer relationships with our alumni, stay in touch with many classmates, and relate with recent graduates. Our Board wants to keep alumni excited and motivated so that they will attend our annual reunion banquet.

AACS Building Renovations: Preserving the Past, While Building the Future

It is with great appreciation that I write this letter to the Alfred-Almond Alumni Association.

It is truly amazing how quickly time passes and how we are left reflecting on the past, while at the same time eagerly anticipating what is yet to come. One recurring theme that helps guide our future plans, is the tremendous support that we receive from our Alumni Association, graduates, staff members and friends. This sense of tradition has acted as a standard for us in many ways, whether that be in the strong academic and extracurricular success of our students or instilling a tempered work ethic and moral base in our graduates. We have always been guided by our alumni as we attempt to live up to their standards.

Similarly, we guide our efforts in building and grounds revitalization from the standard that was built in 1939. Anyone who has either worked in, graduated from or been a part of our school community is well aware of the beauty of our buildings and grounds. With the guidance and support of the AAAA and community, we are pleased to inform you that the campus is better than ever. It is a campus of which to be proud.

Every year, one of the things that brings me the greatest satisfaction is the return of our alumni, as they visit friends and family or prepare for the not to be missed banquet. Invariably, a past graduate returns, pops their head into the office and asks if it is ok if they take a tour of the building. The answer is always an enthusiastic "yes" and normally they are given a guided tour by one of your administrators. Many times when we enter one of the "new" wings, they will comment that they do not remember this, but comment that it must have been here as it looks exactly like the original building. This always makes me smile as it means that we are preserving our past, while building the future.

This preservation of our history has been deliberate and I applaud our BOE members for recognizing the significance and importance of maintaining our strong links to our past. When the 1995 building project took place and a new gym and educational wing were added, the architects were given the direction to create a structure that was reflective and representative of the original architecture of the 1939 building. The results were outstanding and the attention to detail precise, right down to a period archway to connect the two structures. Moreover, the new construction was situated in such a fashion so as to be a natural extension of our campus.

In subsequent projects, with the support and guidance of our educational community, we have maintained this theme. The new track complex is framed with bricks that were specially fabricated to emulate the size and color of the original building, the restroom and storage facility is a smaller version of the gym with matching accents and a peaked slate roof. Even the outside lighting was representative of period lighting of the day matching the patina copper roofing from the original 1939 structure. Smaller projects have also been completed with a mind to tradition. When we revitalized our school library several years ago, the direction from our alumni association was to be mindful that the library had been constructed as the centerpiece of learning. The result was magnificent, as all the woodwork was refurbished, accents re-utilized and details left intact. When faced with the need to replace the lighting, rather than throw out the original fixtures, they were rebuilt and re-wired. When we could not match the original globes that needed replacing, a local artist, Angus Powers, stepped up and fabricated them from scratch to match the originals. Such is the pride that our whole community shares in our campus!

I am pleased to inform all of you that our new entrance doors will be installed over April break. Similarly to some of the aforementioned improvements, they will be reflective of the original structure down to the last detail. Our door committee, comprised of AAAA members, worked for over a year to ensure that these doors, while meeting today's safety standards, were reflective of our heritage and beginnings. Thank you Donna, Lisa, Carl and Don for your work, guidance and support in this regard!

As we prepare for our future, please know that we are continuing our effort to maintain the quality and architectural integrity of our facilities. The Alfred-Almond District is proposing a $3.74M capital improvement project to be voted on in May of this year. This no additional tax project is another step toward enhancing our buildings and programs for current and future students. It will focus on health and safety improvements and the replacement of aging infrastructure items. The goal is to protect investments already made by our community, as well as to prepare our facilities to meet future needs in a fiscally responsible fashion.

This upcoming renovations will be district-wide, including restoring asphalt and sidewalks, auditorium improvements, locker room renovations, roof maintenance, heating and cooling upgrades, classroom renovations, energy-efficient fixtures and improvements to the bus garage.

Enhancing the safety and security of our students is equally as important as maintaining the heritage and history of our buildings. Over the years, our District has continued to strive to fulfill these two goals through our architectural projects. Most recent projects have been centered around securing our buildings to keep students and staff safe.

In the near future, we will be sending out a comprehensive overview of this proposed project to our community members. Please know, that whatever we do, whether large or small, we keep foremost in our minds our obligation to preserve our vibrant past while ensuring that future graduates have the necessary tools to allow them to achieve the same level of success and happiness as those who have walked the halls before them.

Rich Calkins, AACS Superintendent

What's happening at your Alma Mater?

Dear Alfred-Almond Alumni,

Once again I write this letter with sincere gratitude for the many gifts of Alfred-Almond Central School District and the generosity and involvement of our alumni. The value of our Alumni Association is twofold in allowing our current students to both look back and reflect on the stellar reputation and rich history of our school while also looking forward to becoming members of this impressive alumni association.

The positive impact of our alumni is apparent as you walk through our building and around our campus. The Alumni Hall is a source of pride and recognition that provides an important reminder to our students of the service of our alumni. The building and campus are frequently admired by those who visit, as they note how much it resembles a prep school. The library boasts of the importance of literacy and as was noted in the Alfred Sun Special Dedication Number, June 12, 1940, "The dominating feature of the second floor is the School Library, from which the educational work of the whole school will largely radiate." The pride of our school is built on the contributions and efforts of a long history of community care and involvement.

Though much has changed, much is still the same. Walking through the familiar halls, you may see students working on Chromebooks learning code, preparing for computer-based testing and working out in the Fitness Center. You will also see them hard at work using our newest pottery wheels, preparing for the upcoming musical Beauty and the Beast, reading the classics alongside the newest literature, competing in Robotics, learning to make a pillow and using a laser engraver in "shop" while still learning to "measure twice, cut once". This school, originally comprised of "the blending of students from two diverse villages and fourteen one-room school districts located within six townships" continues to offer an excellent academic program, diverse extracurricular offerings and is to this day focused on the original mission of the "birth" of the district in 1938 "To maintain somewhere within itself, a suitable school for its children..with the same educational advantages as those from regions of greater wealth..."

I thank you as alumni for all you do to support our students through your generous giving and sustained pride in our school. The graduating class of 2018, like many before them, chose varied paths for their postsecondary decision. 86% of the graduates continued their education, with 67% continuing at a 4-year institution, 20% choosing a 2-year institution, 2% entering the military, and 14% of our graduates entering into employment.

In closing, I invite you to please come back and visit, share your stories and talents and build a network with our students. We value our alumni and are eager to share the AACCS Eagle pride with you! I look forward to sharing the graduating class of 2019 with you on June 29th and once again thank you for your giving, your inspiration and your support of our school.

All my best to you,
Susan Bain-Lucey, Secondary Principal

First and foremost, I would like to say that it is an honor and a privilege to be a part of the Alfred-Almond family. While I am not an alumnus, I have been a part of this family for close to twenty years as a husband, a father and an educator. Throughout this time, I have witnessed the hard work and dedication that our faculty, staff, and students have put in to make this school the district of choice that it is today. We all should be PROUD to call Alfred-Almond Central School our home!

At the elementary level, we build the foundation of a child's academic, behavioral, and social well-being. Everything must be set into place to build a strong, well-rounded individual. The knowledge and skills that elementary students gain sets the basis for all future education. Alfred-Almond does this and does this well! The success our alumni have had further exemplifies the need for a strong foundation in education. As the author, M.J. Moores stated, "Build a strong foundation and you can reach even the most unthinkable heights."

I would like to thank you all for the time and effort that you put into making this such a giving and generous alumni association. Thank you for all that you do for our kids!

Brett A. Dusinberre
Elementary Principal

TOURS OF AACCS: Remember to include a tour of AACCS in your alumni weekend plans! Don Jefferds, '60, will be on hand Saturday, July 20, from 2 pm – 4 pm to show you the many changes that have transformed AACCS into the beautiful campus that it is today. One of the features you will want to see is the new doors -- crafted to match the original wooden doors, but are energy efficient. Don't forget to drive up on the hill behind "the pines" and take a look at the modern sports complex, complete with six tennis courts, soccer, softball and baseball fields with lighting, a concession stand and bathrooms. Check out the state-of-the-art track in the front yard, too! Be sure to visit the Alumni-Veterans Hall, (the corridor between the "old gym" and the swimming pool/gymnasium complex) where you can view our impressive displays honoring our veterans, Hall of Fame recipients, and outstanding alumni. Please remember to sign the guestbook!

Over 80 years ago, two unique communities, a group of progressive-thinking adults, took the first step toward providing a modern Central school for all the children of the rural communities in the Almond and Alfred area. Prior to this time, Almond and Alfred each had a twelve-year school, Alfred Station had a two-room school, and there were fourteen one-room school districts in the outlying areas surrounding the villages.

The Alfred school board, under the direction of Principal H. F. McGraw, had sought centralization on a smaller scale, having filed an application for a Public Works Act (PWA) grant of nearly $97,000. It then appeared that the only way to get approval of the project was to enlarge it to such a size that the State Department would look upon it with favor. Both Alfred and Almond were facing 'forced' centralization, yet neither was large enough for State Education Department approval. So, the two towns' officials gathered, and a combined central school was conceived.

A June 1938 Alfred Sun article begins to inform the public of the extensive building proposal: "Preliminary plans, as announced by H. F. McGraw, principal of Alfred High School, called for a two-story fireproof brick and steel structure of 38 units. Included will be a complete athletic field and gymnasium, with a fulltime physical education instructor and coach; a home economics department; a cafeteria where a trained dietician will prepare lunch for the students at cost, special fully equipped departments in industrial arts, agriculture and commercial subject, and a full time school nurse. There will be full time instructors in music and art."

A 20-page informational booklet covered in detail all aspects of the project, including the reasons and purposes for centralization, the advantages of a central school, building cost and bond issue figures, the proposed operating budget, and a comprehensive question and answer section. The centerfold featured an impressive two-color architect's drawing of the proposed building. It spelled out the steps that needed to be completed before work could start on the actual building: "The desire to become a Central Rural district is made known to the Commissioner of Education . . . A State Inspector is sent out to survey the district and determine whether or not it is suitable for centralization . . . If the Commissioner of Education is satisfied that Centralization will meet the needs of the area, and that the area is suitable, he calls an election at which time people of the area as a whole either accept or reject the proposed centralization. If a majority vote in favor of Centralization, a board of education is elected for the centralized district, at the same meeting."

The vote for centralization was scheduled for September 12, 1938 from 2 to 8 p.m. at the Almond High School. A few days prior to this important vote, a huge ad appeared in the Alfred Sun entitled "VOTE YES", with four reasons explaining their position:

"FIRST: This area, comprising the townships of Alfred, Almond, parts of Ward, West Almond, Hartsville and Hornellsville, is faced with maintaining somewhere within itself, a suitable school for its children. The only other choice, if you give your children the education you want them to have, is to pay their tuition in a city school, where you have no voice in affairs and where the educational program is intended to meet city conditions, rather than preparing them to meet rural problems, and the problems of small towns.

"SECOND: Unless we build now, we lose $188,837! This PWA grant calls for the start of construction not later than January 1, 1939. Should we refuse this money it will NOT be saved – but spent ELSEWHERE, and we will pay for someone else to have it. This is a gift and not a loan.

"THIRD: Centralization will give children of all rural communities the same educational advantages as those from regions of greater wealth with whom they will someday compete for a living. The state offers each rural community a way to equalize educational opportunities by practically doubling the amount of state aid to centralized schools.

"FOURTH: The reason for the combined centralization of the two villages and surrounding areas is that neither one alone is large enough to be approved by the State Department at the present time. The amount of property value and number of pupils in either one alone would not support as complete an educational program as the combined project. It is expected also, that the law introduced in the last days of the last legislature, setting up a program of 'forced' centralization, will be re-introduced and passed in some form next winter."

80 years ago...AACS merged

The vote established an overwhelming approval of the centralization project. Big headlines in the September 13, 1938 Evening Tribune read: "Almond, Alfred Central School Approved By 451 to 142 votes – Elwood Ormsby Head of new Board, Rush Plans for new Building As Work Must Start By October 1." The article reads: "As soon as voting was tallied last night, the urgent business of putting the centralization into effect was started . . . A business session, which lasted far into the night, and continued today, resulted in the election of a central school board and officers for the coming year. Site of the school must be selected, and preliminary work started by October 1 if a PWA grant of financial aid is to be received. . . . Joining Mr. Ormsby on the board were: Dr. Murray Rice and Mrs. Ramon Reynolds of Alfred, Harold MacMichael of Almond, and Irving Palmiter of Alfred Station. Clerk and treasurer of the board are Mrs. Pearl Armstrong of Almond and J. R. Evans of Alfred Station."

After much planning and person-to-person contact, the taxpayers agreed to give up their autonomy and centralize the towns' school districts by a vote of 451 to 142, a new board of education was formed, and now the rush was on to secure a location and approve plans for the new building.

Compromise and unity on the board must have happened quickly, because only four days after the voters approved the centralization project, the Evening Tribune displayed these headlines on September 16, 1938: "Trask Farm Is Selected As Central School Site – Election Is Called September 26 on Site $230,800 Bonds." This explanation followed: "Property owned by Miss Eleanor Von-Cottendorf, known as the Trask Farm, located about a mile and a half west of Almond on the Alfred road has been selected by the board of education of the newly created Almond-Alfred Centralized School District as a site for a new building to serve the district. . . While it had been expected that at least three sites would be presented, the villages of Almond and Alfred compromised on the Trask property when confronted with a new PWA ruling that the site and bonds must be approved by October 1 to receive a Federal grant. Official notices of the election place the purchase price at $6,000. The Trask farm contains slightly more than 50 acres."

The same week, the Alfred Sun urged voter approval: "The vote on site and bond issue for the new Alfred-Almond Centralized School is of extreme importance in qualifying for the PWA Grant of $188,837. Unless the site and bond issue are voted at the meeting Monday, September 26, officials of PWA have made it plain that the grant will be lost. If that should happen the Centralized district would be forced to raise the additional $188,837 itself in order to build."

The Trask Farm location was a source of contention among some residents, and it appeared this might prevent approval of the bond issue in the vote, which was scheduled in less than two weeks. On September 26, 1938, taxpayers of the new Central School District showed little opposition in a special election on the school site and a bond issue for construction. The count showed 481 approved both while 77 voted against the bond issue and site. The Central School Board is now prepared to proceed with letting contracts for the school and utilizing a $188,837 PWA grant.

The communities had come together, the deadline had been met, and the project was in full gear that fall. The excavation work was started late in the fall of 1938, and this work and the foundation were mostly completed through that winter. The general contractors started construction on the building in the spring of 1939 and finished just before the dedication on June 12, 1940.

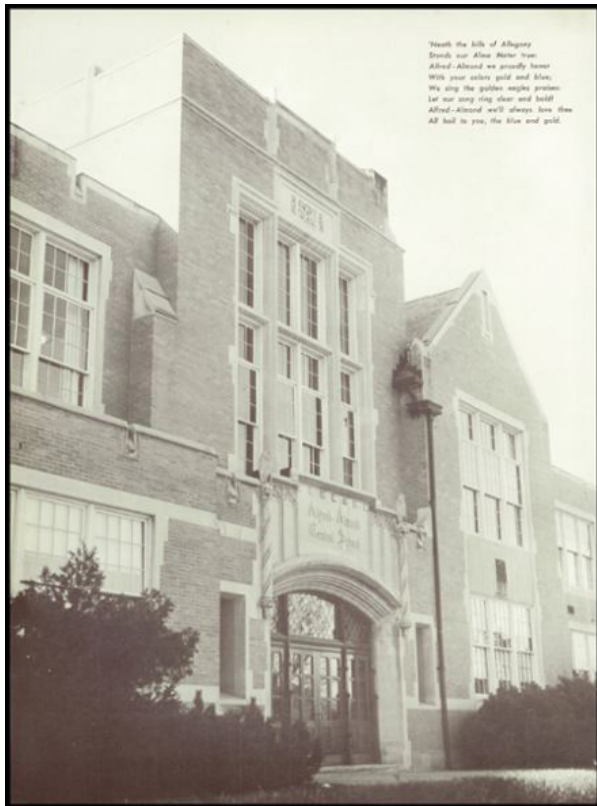

The 18-month project, under the leadership of William B. Harder, general contractor, and Bley and Lyman, architects, resulted in what Mary Jane Ormsby Reid remembers as a "spectacular" building. She tells about walking with her dad, Elwood Ormsby, president of the new Alfred-Almond board of education, to the site, formerly a huge vacant field adjacent to their farm, "almost every day after he had finished his chores. I was very young when this was taking place, and I remember a lot of digging with big machinery and steam shovels. Then they started putting up the bricks, and I thought it would never get done. How can they do that? It seemed unreal. . . It was a real big deal!"

The installation of terrazzo floors in the hallways and cafeteria required special skill, Bob Broughton remembers in his book, "The Dumbest Kid In Third Grade": "Some of my friends and I used to ride our bikes up to the Alfred-Almond school project and watch the workers who were building the school. We got a real kick out of the terrazzo workers. All of them were Italian. They never stopped working, and they never stopped yelling at each other in Italian. . ."

The Alfred Sun reads: "The main building is primarily of Tudor architectural theme, with a slight adaptation of late Gothic in the square tower in the central part of the structure. The frontage is 343 feet long, and the Tudor architecture was chosen to break up too long a line in the frontage. To give the building more pleasing lines, the two wings were not made exactly symmetrical in front. The architects adopted this plan as best answering their problem in constructing such a long building in proportion to its height."

This also permitted them to take advantage of the natural aesthetic features of a hill being located at the immediate rear of the building, although the ground frontage is level.

"The building is the state of the art facility, including classrooms, offices and teachers rooms, the combined auditorium/gymnasium with its stage, lighting system and projection booth, the industrial arts and agricultural shop with large doors providing entrance for vehicle entrance, the Home-Making suite featuring the "food center" and work space, as well as the commercial department, science lab, school cafeteria, music room, and art room. The dominating feature of the second floor is the School Library, from which the educational work of the whole school will largely radiate. The Library is finished in cherry, and the furniture is cherry to match the woodwork."

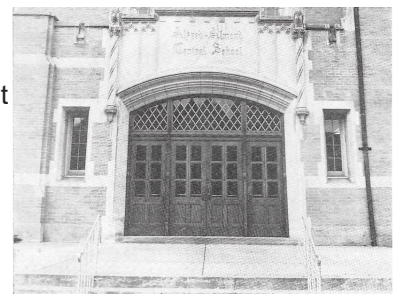

The entire building was impressive, according to Broughton who writes this in his book: "When I first passed through the large oak doors of the brand-new Alfred Almond Central School, I was awe-struck. I don't recall, but I must have just stood there for a full moment, wide-eyed with my mouth agape."

Others also remember their reaction, as school children, when seeing the building for the first time eighty years ago. "It was the biggest building I had ever seen," Lewis Wheeler recalls, "I remember how big and wonderful it was – it smelled so clean." Betty Hicks Schwartz remembers those first days at the new school: "I can see it all now – shining and so beautiful. The gym – there was no comparison -- the sliding partition and to see that thing move. . . our first assembly when they opened and closed those beautiful wine-colored drapes... and how the chairs folded up and were put under the stage."

In his dedicatory address on June 12, 1940, Superintendent of Schools William Garwood, commented: "The Alfred-Almond Central School which we are dedicating tonight is unique in its organization . . . it is highly commendable that the residents of the two villages could submerge their pride in their local school to the extent of giving it up for the larger school which will offer for all the children of the included territory the more adequate educational program. It is just as commendable that the smaller districts have chosen to close their local schools so that their children can get the full advantages of the more modern school. . . With the lights going out all over Europe and Asia on all the fine things for which civilization has striven, with our situation in America somewhat happier because of our public school system more than any one factor, since education makes men free, we can well dedicate this new school to the further enlightenment of our growing generation and to the cause of peace," he concluded.

Many members of the combined Class of 1940 had a chance to meet one another for the first time at their commencement, held on June 25, 1940, right after the building was completed. It had to be a very proud day when the individual Alfred and Almond Senior classes, totaling 31 members, became the new Alfred-Almond Central School Class of 1940 and were the first to graduate in the brand-new school. Amanda Stevens Snyder recalls that her mother, Dorothy Allen, was in that first graduating class and was the very first person to walk across that new stage.

The blending of students, parents, faculty, and taxpayers from two diverse villages and fourteen one-room school districts located within six townships was a challenge. The dedication of Alfred-Almond Central School in 1940 was the beginning of an amiable arrangement that has met the educational needs of our children for over eight decades. The academic accomplishments of the school are a testimony to a group of progressive-thinking adults who put aside their personal feelings for the good of everyone, resulting in today's excellent reputation.

It is with gratitude for their foresight, ambition, and dedication that we remember!

Past Yearbook Dedications

As a gesture of thankfulness to the man who, by his unfailing interest, his sincere enthusiasm and his willingness to help, has made Alfred-Almond Central School a better place to work and live, we the Senior Class of 1952 dedicate our yearbook to A Prentice Stillman.

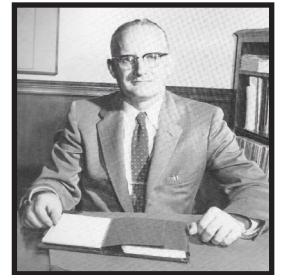

We the Class of 1956, wish to dedicate our yearbook to a most deserving member of the teaching staff, who has guided us over the rough spots of our high school days as our Class advisor in our Junior and Senior years. His patience and understanding, which he has freely given, have been most appreciated. Good humor and helpfulness have led us to have confidence in his teaching, his opinions, and his friendship. Thus, we are glad to have this opportunity to say "thank you, Robert Torrey."

In dedicating this book, the Senior Class of 1958, wish to express deep affection and sincere gratitude to a competent teacher and a warm friend. For her guidance, inspiration, unselfish giving of herself and the privilege of her friendship, we are proud to dedicate the ALCEN of 1958 to Dorothy E Crusen

For your superb balance between firmness and friendliness;
For your humor, patience and inspiration, you have given us;
For your unfailing readiness to assist in all our class endeavors;

For these and many other reasons too numerous to mention, we, the Class of 1960, in dedicating this yearbook, wish to pay tribute to you who have given of your time and effort willingly and unselfishly to guide us through our school years; We thank you Kenneth Clicquenois

To dedicate; to consecrate; to give. Once there was someone who gave us so much, we'd like to give her just one perfect thing. The lady whom we want to thank today gave us knowledge and gave us herself. She read to us, we wrote, we saw, we learned, and knew the fragile strength called poetry.

In history, she gave us perspective, showed us time need not be a barrier and Greece, Rome and the Renaissance; and through her eyes we saw and felt a past that lived, beat and trembled in our hand.

We had the joy and splendor of a play. Here, too, she gave us selflessly her time, enthusiasm, talents, and patience. And we had fun, and made a story live. Things given freely thus should not be classed but courage is perhaps her finest gift. For never, never did she hesitate to cut through all the texts and all the lies. And give us what was true and beautiful.

We dedicate the book that we have made to Mrs. Phelan, who was not afraid. Class of 1964

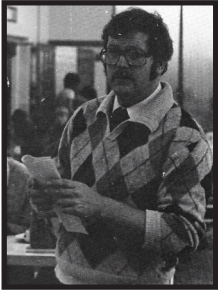

"The only way to have a friend is to be one." Emerson
A friend is...
....always willing to learn.
....concerned about you.
....sympathetic.
....understanding.
....always helping.

We the senior class of Alfred Almond, are fortunate enough to know such a person.
To our friend, Mrs. Fosegan we dedicate this 1973 Alcen.

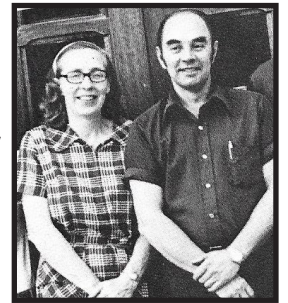

Past Yearbook Dedications

Is there someone, somewhere, who can put a smile on a sad face, cares with a special kindness that grandmothers so often have, share with others a sweet and gentle spirit? Is there someone who can laugh with any person that passes by and love anyone, anywhere, anytime? We the Senior Class, believe there is one person who perfectly fulfills these qualities. After many years of working at Alfred-Almond, this person retired from our school staff. But despite that fact that she has left us physically, her face will always be remembered in the minds of the hundreds of students who love her so dearly. We are sure everyone will agree that know such a person: thus, we dedicate the 1974 Alcen to her, Mrs. Lena Schwartz.

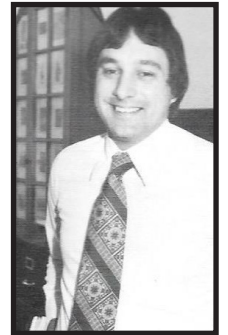

Seldom will one be found who has such rapport with his students. You have kept us on our toes with that rare gift of humor tempered with discipline. Our feeling of appreciation and gratitude for your leadership will be with us long after we graduate. This dedication is small compared to what you have given us. Our appreciation and fond remembrance go with this to our prodding '78 class advisor, winning soccer coach and patient teacher, Mr. Cuykendall.

It is not very often that the students, faculty, staff and administration of an entire school system can depend upon two people so completely. It is unusual for them to give of their time and of themselves as much as they do and seem to enjoy it at the same time. A day does not go by without a friendly 'hi' to everyone they meet in the halls. They are always willing to help in an after school activity. There is much one can say about two such people, but to do so would take forever. The Class of '72 takes this opportunity to say 'Thank You' and dedicate our yearbook to Al and Bea Lorrow.

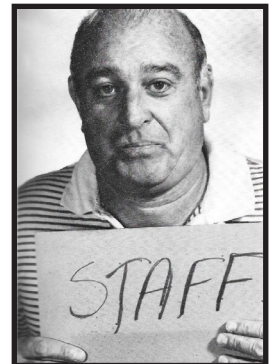

I think we all agree that we found you too late. Two years was not enough time for the Class of "76" to spend with you. Without your money raising brainstorms and patience, we would have only dreams of a Senior trip. How did you ever hold up! You have always given us much more than what was just required; you gave us something much more valuable... yourself. You took pains to get to know each one of us as individuals and never turned us away when a problem arose. Thank you so much for all that you have done, and if we're lucky, we'll find more people like you in the future. Thank You Mrs. Porter

In dedicating this book, the senior Class of 1982 wishes to express deep affection and sincere gratitude for a competent teacher and a warm friend. For the guidance, inspiration, patience, unselfish giving of himself and the privilege of his friendship, we are proud to dedicate the 1982 Alcen to John Michael Brace.

There is a teacher at A-A, who stands out in the eyes of the Class of '83. She has worked very hard these past two years to make a senior trip materialize for us, but never without a smile. Her enthusiastic good cheer and sincere interest in our class have always been appreciated. In order to express our thanks, for her devotion, we, the Class of 1983 dedicate this Alcen to Mrs. Ellis.

For twenty-five years, the youth of Alfred Almond have been graced with this person's warmth, smile and sense of humor. Behind that rough exterior lies a caring, sensitive, and generous man never too busy to help others. Because of his service, leadership, and dedication to the sports teams and students of A-A, we present this token of our appreciation. The Class of 1984 is proud to dedicate the Alcen to Mr. Jim McEoy.

AAAA Outstanding Service Award Honoree 2019

George B. Harris III

The Outstanding Service Award was established by the Alfred Almond Alumni Association in 2015 to offer an avenue of recognition apart from the AACS sports program for individuals who excel in service to their communities and organization to which they belong, above and beyond any employment or job-related duties. One of the main purposes of this award is to encourage volunteerism and service among AACS alumni and friends.

George B. Harris of Alfred, decorated veteran, longtime coach, dedicated Boy Scout leader and honoree, and multi-involved civic leader, has been selected by the AAAA to receive the 2019 Outstanding Service Award.

A native of Wellsville, George graduated from Wellsville High School in 1965. After attending Cornell University and Gettysburg College, he enlisted in the U.S. Marine Corps in 1967 where he served as an infantryman and was awarded the Purple Heart.

Following his military service, George met his wife Mary, currently retired AACS elementary and high school art teacher, while attending St. Lawrence University. After his 1972 graduation and living in Colorado for three years, the couple moved to Alfred in 1975. At various times, George served as the Chairman of the Town of Alfred Planning and Zoning Board, served three two-year terms as President of the Foster Lake Club, coached t-ball for five years, Little League for five years, and served as the League commissioner for six years. He also co-chaired the "Project Playground" Finance Committee in Alfred.

For more than thirty-five years, Scouting has been one of George's passions. He began serving the local Boy Scouts in 1984 as Treasurer of Pack 26. From 1987-89, he was Assistant Scoutmaster of Troop 19 and Scoutmaster from 1989 until 1994. He has served as Thunderbird District Commissioner and as District Chairman on multiple occasions, most recently in his ninth consecutive year in that position. Currently one of the longest tenured members of the Five Rivers Council Executive Board, George has served on that board for over twenty-five years. In recognition of his dedication to scouting, George is a recipient of the coveted Silver Beaver and Distinguished Commissioner awards.

An excellent tennis player himself, George began coaching boys' varsity tennis as a volunteer assistant under Connor Stephens in 1991. He became head coach in 1993, leading the team to an 18-2 record and a share of the Steuben County League championship. 1996 brought another county championship and an undefeated regular season, with the sole loss occurring in the sectional finals at Harley-Allendale-Columbia.

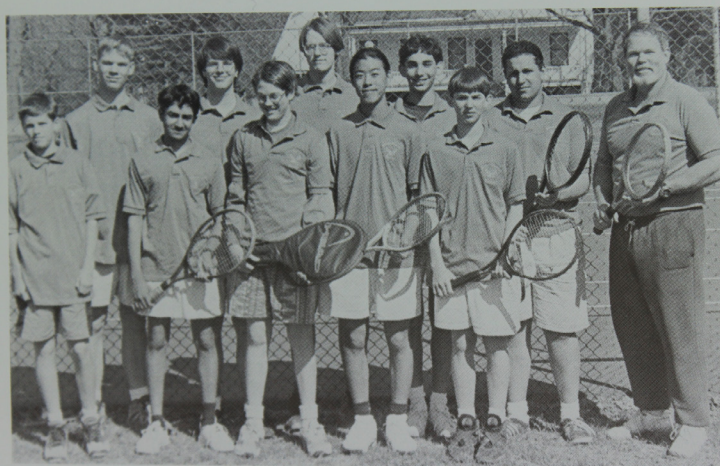

A-A repeated as county champs in 1997, when all 18 varsity players recorded winning records and A-A won both the singles and doubles championships at the county tournament. The overall A-A varsity record was 100-17. George also coached the boys modified team at the same time as the varsity, retiring after the 1998 season. For twenty years, George served as Chairman of the Steuben County Boys Tennis League and as Co-chairman of the Section V Class D Boys Tennis for ten years.

George is a life member of the NRA, and the Disabled American Veterans organization. He and Mary are parents of three children, all AACS graduates: Tod, '94, Brooke, '96, and Beth, 2000. The couple now enjoys watching their grandchildren in their AACS activities and sports.

Congratulations to George B Harris III. AA's 2019 Outstanding Service Award Honoree: decorated veteran, longtime coach, dedicated Boy Scout leader and honoree, and multi-involved civic leader.

Jason Fraser, '09

By all accounts, Jason Fraser was a phenom. Part of the Class of 2009, Jason stood out even as an underclassman competing on varsity teams. His wrestling coach, John Gemmell best explains why: "First, is his indescribable work ethic. Seeing the work that Jason puts in before, during, and after practice demonstrates his desire to be the best he can be, no matter what he is working at. Second, is his ability to set goals and work toward those goals. Last, but certainly not least, are his leadership skills. Jason was elected captain in each of his three varsity sports teams. He is the kind of individual that makes everyone around him better."

Jason competed as a varsity Eagle in four different sports: four years of soccer, five years of wrestling, one year of tennis, (which he had never played before, and completed the season undefeated at second doubles), and then two years of track, often winning "Most Improved" or sportsmanship awards, even when he was not the MVP.

As a soccer athlete, Jason was part of the Sectional Champion Eagles of 2006 and was named to the second team All-State. As a track athlete, Jason competed in the pole vault his junior and senior years, taking second place in sectionals as a junior and winning as a senior, when the Eagles also captured the Sectional title.

It was as a wrestler that Jason really left his mark in the A-A record books. A five time Section V Champion (2005-2009) at 152 pounds, Jason amassed a career record of 156 wins and 20 losses, and was named Most Outstanding Wrestler of the 2008 Sectional competition. He advanced to Super Sectional competition and was a semi finalist four times before finally winning the state qualifier and competing in the state tournament, where he placed third. He went on to wrestle at Ithaca College, and then Life University, where he holds the record for most pins in a single season.

Jason also excelled in the classroom, earning membership in the National Honor Society and maintaining a cumulative average of 92 percent while competing at the highest level in three seasons of varsity sports. He went on to earn a Doctorate of Chiropractic from Life University in 2016. Jason is the son of Cindy Fraser, '78 and brother of Shane and Kevin, '14.

Aaron Rygiel, '09

Aaron Rygiel began his soccer career as a seventh grader playing on the junior varsity team. The next five years he was a varsity starter, earning both scholar athlete and Birdseye recognition multiple times in his career. On the soccer field, Aaron was the leading scorer and assist winner in Steuben County, and he continued to hone his skills as a three year starter for the nationally ranked Rochester Junior Rhinos. During his sophomore year, he helped his team clinch the Section V Championship and was named MVP of the finals. His skills were recognized beyond Steuben County as well, he was named All Greater Rochester Honorable Mention as a freshman and sophomore, Second Team as a junior and First Team as a senior. As a senior, his efforts also earned him recognition as the Birdseye Player of the Year, and a spot on the All State First Team. He was a starter on the Olympic Development Program for elite youth in Northeastern USA. Aaron ended his high school career with 107 goals and 80 assists.

In the winter, Aaron competed on the A-A basketball team for three years, while continuing to both play in and often referee local indoor soccer tournaments. While admittedly not a basketball star, Aaron nonetheless earned a spot on the 2009 Spectator Great 8 First Team due to his dedication and hustle. Coach Brad Hoyt commented, "I have not coached a kid who works as hard as he does. You might be able to outplay him, but you'll never outwork him. I guarantee that."

In the spring, Aaron was a varsity starter on the boys tennis team for five years, earning both the first singles and first doubles position on the team. Playing against the toughest opponents, he helped his team win the Section V Championship in both his Junior and Senior years.

Aaron travelled to the Netherlands to train with a U-19 soccer team for a year after high school, then continued his soccer career in college, competing for and earning recognition at both Georgia Perimeter and Division 1 Creighton University. He earned his BA in Exercise and Sport Science from UNC Chapel Hill, and his Doctor of Physical Therapy from Duke. Aaron lives and works in Greenville, NC. Aaron is the son of Richard & Laurie Murray, '72 Rygiel and brother of Christina, '04 of Almond.

Spotlight on Alumni

Scot Huntington, '72, Westerly, RI

Scot recently received the National Organ Historical Society's (OHS) Distinguished Service Award, the premier recognition given to volunteers who have contributed significant service in terms of time, talent, and work as well as important contributions of the highest order for the promotion and betterment of the Society. The award, presented this year at the National Convention held in Rochester, acknowledged Scott's service to the OHS since 1984, including his chairmanship of three national conventions, and service on the National Council for 16 years, including as VP and most recently as President.

Following his graduation with a major in Organ Performance from SUNY Fredonia, Scot served apprenticeships with various New England pipe organ builders, where he learned pipe making, general pipe organ instrument building, woodworking and historic restoration practice. He established his own firm, S. L. Huntington & Co., in Stonington, CT, in 1988, specializing in the construction of new historically inspired pipe organs and the thoughtful restoration of pipe organs of all styles.

Bob Baker, '53, Alfred, former coach at Belmont Central School, was recently inducted into the Genesee Valley CS Wall of Fame. After lettering in four sports at AACS, Bob graduated from Springfield College, Springfield, MA, where he played soccer, basketball and baseball. He began his coaching career at Belmont Central School and then went on to coach basketball and tennis at Alfred University. Married to the former Barbara Allen, '55, for nearly sixty-three years, Bob is retired from a successful sales career with Community Service Systems. He and Barb reside in Alfred, where they are active in the Alfred-Almond Bible Church, volunteer for Faith in Action, and have done an annual three-day bike trip around the Northeast US with the same couples for over 15 years.

Dennis O'Brien, Hornell, retired AACS elementary teacher from 1972-2004, was inducted this year into the Section V Athletics Executive Hall of Fame in Rochester. He was AACS swimming coach from 1973-1984, again in 2005, producing Section V Class C boys swimming champions in 1979, 1980 and 1984. He also coached girls track, skiing and soccer and was AACS athletic director from 1990 until his 2004 retirement. A member of the AACS Sports Hall of Fame and HHS Sports Hall of Fame, he served Section V for over 20 years as swimming and ski coordinator, as well as the Steuben County HS Athletic Association.

Meg Williams, '10, Nashville, TN, is steadily building a name for herself both in Music City and beyond. The 2010 recipient of the Juanita Whitaker Pulos Fine Arts Scholarship recently signed on to Nola Blue Records, and her album, "Take Me As I Am" was released on April 19, 2019. The album is a collection of twelve original songs, penned by Meg alone, or in collaboration with other Nashville-based songwriters. Bob Leggett, LA Music Critic stated: "This lady is going places. Get on board and support her now." Meg performs frequently at venues across the country with her band, Meg Williams Band, as a solo/duo act, and as a guitarist for other artists. She recently competed in the 2019 International Blues Challenge (Memphis, TN), representing the Kentucky Blues Society, and was the house band director for the Women in Blues Showcase during the IBC's.

Meg says, "I am so thrilled to be working with Sallie and Nola Blue Records! When I first met Sallie, I immediately knew that we would work so well together - Sallie is a tremendously hardworking, driven, and kind person, who puts her heart and soul into supporting her artists. Recording Take Me As I Am at FAME Studios in Muscle Shoals was an incredible experience. I'm so proud and excited to continue to grow as an artist with Nola Blue and can't wait for what's next!"

Megan Murray, '14, AACS softball star, Cornell alumna and a three-time All-Ivy League outfielder, has joined the Princeton softball coaching staff as an Assistant Coach. Megan's

Charles Burdick, '49, Alfred Station, Firefighter of the Year at the 102nd Annual Meeting of the Allegany County Firemen's Association last summer. This is

John Baker and Jeff Ryan, Class of 1979

Two men from the Class of 1979 who exercised their entrepreneurial leanings in the early 1980s as a duo house painting team, have continued their longtime successful business pursuits: Jeff Ryan as a 35-year investment/insurance advisor and John Baker in the cheesecake/bakery business for the past sixteen years.

John and Jeff spent a couple of summers during their college years on ladders scraping (and sometimes even scrapping) and painting older homes in the area. Childhood friends, the men have since established and developed their own successful businesses, exchanging ideas and tips on marketing and sales, business plans and management, employee relations, and goals for expansion.

John, together with his wife, Colleen, purchased the famous Cheesy Eddie's Bakery in the South Wedge, Rochester, in 2003. The business has quadrupled in growth, necessitating the recent establishment of another retail/bakery outlet next to Palmer's Food/Regional Market at 900 Jefferson Road, Henrietta. John's niece, Lindsay Baker Palmer, '06, is starting her fourth season as their wedding coordinator. Famous for their gourmet cheesecake, carrot cakes, and specialty desserts, Rochester newspapers have consistently recognized Cheesy Eddie's with "Best of Rochester" and "Couples Choice Award."

Jeff established his scratch insurance agency in 1983 after graduating from Taylor University. Two years after working out of a phone book, he purchased the Ann Termin Agency of Canisteo in 1986. In 1995 they consolidated with the 33-year agency started by his dad,

Lee A. Ryan, '55. The Ryan Agency has quintupled in size since that time with offices now in Jasper and Wellsville. A year ago, Jeff hired his sister, Jennifer Ryan Baker, '81, to help in Wellsville, office. The Ryan Agency currently represents several leading insurance companies and employs 18 excellent staff. For the sixth straight year the agency was voted as "Best of the Best" by the Hornell Evening Tribune readership and received the highest agency honor bestowed by their lead carrier Erie Insurance.

It is truly a family affair . . . as Lindsay is also Jeff's niece and daughter of Jenny and John's brother, Bill Baker, '80!

Dr. Mary Ellen Hoffman, '93, Ithaca College '97, recently embarked on a new adventure — one that led her away from the typical health care model and toward an increasingly popular and innovative type of care. A 2001 graduate of SUNY Upstate Medical University, Mary Ellen left the security of a large Central New York healthcare network to establish her private subscription service practice in Oneonta, NY.

Frustrated by the volume-based model of squeezing in as many patients as possible to collect from insurance, she went one step further, largely eliminating the middlemen in favor of direct primary care. Patients pay Hoffman Family Medicine a monthly fee that gives them access to the doctor for office visits, as well as a phone number that they can call or text her at any time.

Since establishing her new practice, she has been able to bring in a second physician, Dr. Lia Briggs. A local newspaper article states: "Both women said that the practice harkens back to older days of medicine, when doctors would make house calls and had time to consider patients' care holistically.

About half of their patients followed them to the new practice," they said. Finding it difficult to balance work and family life (she has two children), Mary Ellen says she has had much more time to dedicate to individual patients. "I was thinking the other day that I feel like a real doctor," the article quoted.

committee expert and point person for the Police, Fire, Corrections, Medical Examiner and Public Hospital, 7 years as a Domestic Crimes Detective investigating violent family crime, and 3 years with Department Homeland Security Bureau. Also, was a general Crimes Detective, field Training Officer for 2 years and started a Commercial Burglary Surveillance team. During these years: wrote the Seaport Security Ordinance for the Port of Miami, the largest cruise port in the world and one of the largest cargo ports, and rewrote the Counties Pawn shop ordinance to close loop holes that prevented the capture of Andrew Cunanan, an American serial killer known to have murdered five people, including Italian fashion designer Gianni Versace and Chicago real estate developer Lee Miglin.

Highlight of his career, earning several commendations, was coordinating the local urban training in Miami Dade County for the US Navy Seals, US Army Delta Force, The Joint Special Operations Command (JASOC), The Army Special Operations Air Regiment (SOAR) and several Intelligence agency Task forces. This training, averaging 10 million dollar annual local impact to the county, ranged from hostage rescue to complex intelligence gathering test for teams prior to overseas deployment. He was presented two American flags flown in overseas combat one each from the Navy Seals and Delta Force.

In 1993, he met his wife Lisa, who also works for the Police Department and together raised two beautiful children, daughter Alexis and son Patrick.

The daughter and granddaughter of AACS alum Shane Davidson, '94, and Penny Harwood Davidson, '72, made wrestling history for AACS this past winter. Morgan Davidson (class of 2020) competed in the inaugural NYSPHSAA Girls Wrestling invitational tournament, and came away with a first place finish. Wrestling in the 160# class, the invitational was an opportunity for Morgan, who has to compete against boys throughout the season, to compete against other girls. Congratulations, Morgan, for becoming the first female NYS Public High School invitational champion at AACS.

Eric "Rick" McAndrew, '78 Coral Spring, FL, retired after 32 from the Miami Dade Police Department. After graduating from Alfred University in 1982, BA in Criminal Justice, he enlisted in the army 1983-1986. Spotlight on Alumni some of my old high school art and she said I have a great color sense. I didn't know what that really was but hey! Sounds good to me...I was thinking.

Well. To make this shorter, after about five years of practice and submissions to companies like Marvel and DC Comics...the rejection slips were many! But I kept on trying and got good enough to become a colorist working on stuff I loved! The rest is History.

I have been a pro colorist in the comics field for going on infinity it seems! I am currently helping to launch a new line of books and have been coloring the most popular strip for the newspapers in.....Finland! It's called VIIVI & WAGNER and it's all in Finish! I don't understand a word!

Matt created the Alfred-Almond Eagle exclusively for the 2019 issue of "The Blue & Gold" - featured in full color on the back cover -- Thank you, Matt!

Bill Turck, believed to be the oldest living member of the very first AACS graduating class, the Class of 1940, currently lives at Henry Ford Village, an independent living facility in Dearborn MI. "I was in the first graduating class at Alfred-Almond, the Class of 1940. Both Alfred and Almond High School seniors participated in that very first commencement exercise. It takes time to explain how I could graduate from a school that I had never attended! That is because the district had just been centralized – and the new school building had not yet held any classes. The Alfred and Almond senior classes first met at the school on graduation day!" Bill's entire schooling was in the Alfred Village School, later known as South Hall. Asked to describe his impression of the new school, Bill said: "It was a big gym... and empty chairs were all lined up on the platform for us to sit in! From the outside, we had seen the school being built for a year and a half or two – it was very nice. We knew just the ones from Alfred—we had not really had anything to do with Almond before."

Commenting on his high school education, Bill said: "I am proud of the excellent training that I received in high school, especially in mechanical drawing. The good high school training made it very easy for me to make the Dean's list in my one and only year of college and launched me into the 'working world' at: The Tank Automotive Center in Aberdeen, MD; Gar Wood Industries, Detroit, MI; Cadillac Motor Car Co.; and Ford Motor Co., where the work was so interesting I worked for 50 years, finally retiring at age 80!"

We congratulate Bill, a consistent generous supporter of the AAAA, on this anniversary of his 80th AACS high school graduation! Bill commented: "I am 97 now, and my goal now is to make it to 100!"

Thank You From the Class of 2018

Delivered to the AAAA at the July 21, 2018 banquet on behalf of the scholarship recipients by Emelia Enke

Hi, I'm Emelia Enke. On behalf of the Class of 2018 I would like to extend our deepest gratitude to the Alfred Almond Alumni Association. Throughout senior year, I would talk to my fellow classmates about their plans after high school. Although we were excited for the journey ahead, we were nervous about the finances associated with furthering our education. Easy said, but true, these scholarships given by the Alumni Association help us fund our dreams.

The Alfred-Almond Alumni Association is a selfless organization focused on helping the community. Your donations allow students from our small school district achieve their big goals. You help us pursue our passions and further our education. We are immensely grateful for your dedication to the students of AA.

Receiving scholarships means so much to us. This honor is made greater knowing it comes from the people of the community. These scholarships are not just money, they are a message to us that we are capable. These scholarships show us that the community has our back, and believes in us. These scholarships show us that we are part of something bigger than ourselves. We are extremely humbled receiving scholarships from people who went to the same school as us. It's great receiving recognition from the people of Alfred Almond.

Although you may not know us personally, your donation has positively impacted our lives. Thank you for taking a leap of faith, and trusting in our abilities. We have become the people we are today because of Alfred Almond, and will go into the world wearing that badge proudly. With these generous scholarships we will make Alfred Almond proud. We hope to further the tradition of kindness seen in the Alumni Association. The selflessness of the Alfred Almond community is astounding, and I am proud to call myself an alumnus of this great school. Thank you.

Class of 2018 Scholarship Recipients say "Thank You"

Dear Alfred Almond Alumni,

I am so incredibly fortunate to have received your scholarship to aid me in my college journey. Everyone knows the extensive expenses that pursuing a higher education entails, however, people don't usually turn their minds to the fees outside of tuition, and room and board. For example, textbooks, online accounts for homework, club fees, access fees, lost room key fees, and so on. Just in my first semester, I have had to pay over $500 in textbooks, drawing materials for my engineering courses, class codes for online websites, tryout fees for club sports teams, and access fees for the music building. All of this was covered by the scholarship. Furthermore, your generous gift allowed me to purchase a new laptop that I use daily, and almost exclusively in my classes.

It's easy to receive a scholarship at graduation, feel proud of yourself for winning it, and then move on without realizing the impact that it will have further on down the road. I haven't even gotten to the second semester of school, and it has already made a monumental difference. So once again, thank you.

With gratitude,

~ Attilo Cushing

Dear Alfred-Almond Alumni

Thank you greatly for recognizing me to receive the Juanita Whitaker Pulos Memorial scholarship. It's an honor to have been chosen for such an award, especially as I've been recovering from recent open heart surgery. The biography of Juanita Whitaker Pulos I received has been particularly inspiring in my recovery. I should be on track to attend my university of choice, RIT, this August, which this scholarship will help me pay for. In closing, I am sincerely grateful for this scholarship and I will make sure it doesn't go to waste.

Sincerely,

~ Joshua Carstens

Dear Alfred Almond Alumni Association:

Thank you so much for selecting me as the Rachael Amato-Baldo/Tom Murphy Memorial Scholarship recipient. This generous gift is greatly appreciated and will be extremely useful as I pursue my dream of becoming a Physical Therapist at Nazareth College. I am honored to have been chosen for this award and am grateful for all of the support I continue to receive from this community.

Thank you,

~ Julia Price

I am forever grateful for the opportunities the Alfred-Almond Alumni Association has granted both me and my classmates. With this scholarship money I can study abroad, which is something I've dreamed of since the beginning of high school. This scholarship is unique in the fact that you receive input from your classmates, for it is them who know you best, both inside and outside of school. Again I am so thankful for the Alfred-Almond Alumni association and the money they have given to me and my classmates, this truly shows that Alfred-Almond is a wonderful place.

Thank you,

~ Maya Racho

Dear Alfred-Almond Alumni Association,

I am honored to receive the Founders Palmiter and Lorow Scholarship. Thank you so much for your generosity, which has helped me offset the costs college. I am attending SUNY Fredonia in the fall, majoring in biochemistry. I would like to continue on to graduate school to earn my PhD in genetics. I would love to conduct research in genetics in the future. Your generosity has allowed me to pursue these dreams. Thank you again for granting me this scholarship, I deeply appreciate it.

Sincerely,

~ Kaitlyn Cook

Alfred Almond Alumni Association,

Thank you so much for the generous scholarship. I was thrilled when I found out that I was this year's recipient. I have always been an active member of Alfred Almond's community and I was honored that you chose me to represent our school. I love to be able to say that I grew up in such a close-knit community that would always help and support each other. I am working towards earning a degree in chemical engineering at the University of Pittsburgh and thanks to you I am one step closer to my goal. I am excited to begin the next chapter of my life and continue to pursue my education. Your generosity will help me a tremendous amount in the future and I hope to one day be able to give back and help Alfred Almond students the way that you have helped me.

Sincerely,

~ Sophia Napolitano

Thank you very much for awarding me this scholarship. It is an incredible feeling to know that all of the work that I put in to school paid off. I will use this money to help further my education and to help me get a job in my field of study. Thanks again, your kindness and generosity is overwhelming.

~ Garrett C. Little

To whom it may concern,

Thank you so much for the scholarship, not only will it be a HUGE help paying for college, but also it is incredibly validating to see all of my hard work pay off.

Sincerely,

~ Hudson D. Laprade

Dear Alfred-Almond Alumni Association,

Thank you so much for awarding me the Anne Wenslow Memorial Scholarship and the Alumni Association Founders Palmiter/Lorow Scholarship. I am deeply honored that I was chosen to receive these scholarships. These scholarships will help me fund my education in order to achieve our goals.

In my case, I plan to attend Alfred University for a degree in Ceramic Engineering in the fall. These scholarships help me pay for books, and all the other costs associated with college. Thank you for helping me achieve my goals.

I am immensely grateful for the Alumni Association. I am deeply honored that people from the same school I have attended for over thirteen years, puts their trust in me and helps me achieve my goals. Alfred Almond, and its many wonderful people have shaped me into the person I am today, and I thankful they believe in me. The selflessness of the Alfred Almond community is astounding, and I am proud to call myself an alumnus of this great school.

A Million Thanks,

~ Emelia Enke

I would like to thank the Alfred-Almond Alumni Association for awarding me the Jean Hanks Palmiter/Dale Lorow Scholarship. I felt honored to receive this scholarship. The money will be put towards my tuition at Albany College of Pharmacy. Thank you again for investing in the future of my classmates and myself.

~ Abigail Hendee

Dear Alfred-Almond Alumni Association,

Thank you ever so much for bestowing the Jean Hanks Palmiter/Dale Lorow Scholarship upon me, for this upcoming 2018-2019 school year. This award will greatly help me pay for college and I am immensely grateful to be one of the chosen recipient this year.

Sincerely,

~ Jessica Matteson

Class of 2018 Scholarship Recipients say "Thank You"

Dear Alfred-Almond Alumni Association,

Thank you so much for giving us the opportunity to not only attend college but follow our dreams. This stage in our life is only a stepping stone on our paths to achieve what we have long dreamed about.

You have provided us assistance in taking our own paths to success and for that we will be forever thankful. These scholarships mean far more that you will ever know to each and every one of us. Past, present and future recipients will always be thankful to be a part of such an amazing school with alumni that care so much about our futures.

From: ~ Morgan Giglio

Dear Alumni,

Thank you for the scholarship I was awarded recently. I was surprised at the number of Alfred Almond Alumni at the banquet and the memories they shared. I am proud to be an alumnus of such a close knit group. I will be using the scholarship money to purchase uniforms, equipment and textbooks that I will need for my major in culinary arts. I am excited for this next chapter to begin and to make new friends in college. Again thank you so much for the generosity shown to me and my fellow classmates.

Sincerely, ~ Brady Holmok

I want to thank the members of the Alfred-Almond Alumni Association for the Alumni Association Founders Palmer/Lorow Scholarship. This will be extremely useful for my education at Dickinson College.

From seventh grade forward I participated in three seasons of sports at Alfred Almond each year, and it was very nice to have my teachers both in the classroom and on the playing field. This aspect of Alfred Almond allowed me to create stronger relationships with my teachers. I was challenged academically during my years at Alfred Almond, and I feel I am well prepared for the next stage of my life. I am very grateful for the number of AP classes that were available to me.

There were opportunities for extracurricular activities such as the New York School Music Association Solo Festivals, which I participated in every year since sixth grade. The opportunity developed my interest in music all throughout my high school career, and I hope to continue music in college.

Receiving this award was a wonderful surprise at graduation. It was a memorable ending to my years at Alfred-Almond.

While I am sad to be leaving the Alfred-Almond community, I will always have fond memories of the teachers that have gotten me to this point. I look forward to future visits to the school.

Sincerely, ~ Ellen McInnes

Dear AACCS Alumni Association,

First of all, I very much appreciate being selected as one of the recipients of the scholarships you gave out this year. It will help so much in the upcoming years of college to pay for textbooks, tuition and housing at Ithaca College. I will be working towards a Master's degree in Occupational Therapy there for the next five years. In addition, I will be swimming on the varsity swimming and diving team. Regretfully, I will not be able to attend the banquet to accept the award. My family and I will be traveling to Hawaii during that time.

Again, thank you so much for this award and I apologize for not being able to attend the banquet.

Sincerely, ~ Alyssa Greaney

The reason I am so grateful for this scholarship is because it will allow me to go to college -- something I have worked so hard towards in the past years. Education has always been really important to me, so I've always done my best to learn material to the fullest and earn good grades. I've spent my time developing into a well-rounded person; the last couple years of high school, I did this with college and my future in mind. I was accepted into my top choice, but I found out the hard way that even if you put in effort, money can definitely make or break you. That's why receiving this scholarship means so much to me. For a little while, I was unsure if I'd even be able to attend community college because of all the costs. But now, I am set to attend Corning Community College in the fall, and it's all thanks to the scholarship money I have received. I have pursued art and music because I love it; I have also pursued it because I believe it can be used to tell people's stories, it can be used to heal, and it can convey so many more emotions and messages than words alone. Thank you for recognizing my commitment to music and art and giving me this help that not everyone gets; I am so grateful and lucky to have the opportunity to further my education and eventually make a difference in the world.

~ Vianna Koegel

Dear Alfred Almond Alumni Association:

My name is Duncan Bryant-Carty and as of this June, I am officially an Alumnus of Alfred-Almond Central School. I will be attending SUNY at New Paltz this fall and thanks to you, I will be able to afford my education. I would like to personally thank you for awarding me the Alumni Association Founders Palmiter/Lorow Scholarship. I feel as though I cannot express how much gratitude I feel towards the alumni who chose me for this scholarship. Thank you so much for all the help you have given me and the generosity you have shown me. This scholarship not only helps me afford the cost of attendance that will confront me this Fall, but has also allowed me to get the most out of my summer. I say this because earlier this year, I came to the realization that I would have to work two jobs this summer, one full-time and one part-time, in order to make enough money to pay for my education. By the generosity of the Alumni and Alumni Association founders (Jean Hanks Palmiter and Dale Lorow), I will not have to work two jobs this summer and I will be able to enjoy my last summer as a high school student. This means spending more time with my friends and my family, and more time to skateboarding. I have a passion for skateboarding. I cannot thank the Alumni enough for allowing me to follow my passion throughout the summer and into the start of my college career.

I am majoring in business management at SUNY at New Paltz. A major that I hope will someday evolve into owning my own skateboarding shop. It has been a childhood dream of mine to open a shop that sells skateboards. Thanks to the Alumni Association for selecting me to receive this scholarship, I will finally be able to learn what I need to learn in order to pursue my dream. In truth, you are making my dreams come true.

I would like to conclude this letter by saying thank you one last time. The generosity of the Alumni Association and all its members is truly unmatched and has made a huge difference in my life. You are very amazing people and I hope to someday be able to help people out as much as you have helped me out.

Sincerely,

~ Duncan Bryant-Carty

Alumni Association,

Thank you so much for the scholarship. It is greatly appreciated and will be put to good use.

$2,115 in Camp Scholarships given to 13 A-A students in 2018

Thank you, the Alfred-Almond Alumni Association, for your financial support, with this sponsorship, I was able to go to Houghton's Advanced Soccer Camp. I learned new skills and practicing drills that I will apply in this year's soccer season. I really enjoyed the experience and I appreciate the time and money that the Alumni Association gives to the Alfred-Almond Sports League.

Thanks again, Andrea McMahon

To Alfred - Almond Alumni Association,

Owen Washburn

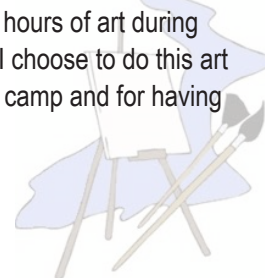

AAAA Board,

As you can see, Owen is a young man of few words. As parents we just wanted to take the opportunity to thank you. Owen had a fantastic time and learned a lot.

With much appreciation, Aaron & Kasi Washburn, Class of '97

Hello, My name is Tiphaine Feltin. I'm French and I will be next year in 9th grade. I love art and I did art class in France. The art class in France is very boring because we have just paper and some color pencils. We don't have ceramic things and we don't paint. So I choose to do this camp because I love art! You already know that, but when I was little I was fascinated by art like ceramics or DIY. I wanted to do this camp because in Alfred Almond School I had just 2 or 3 hours of art during the week. I wanted to have more art so I choose to do this art camp. Thank you for the grant of my art camp and for having subsidized me for that camp.

Thanks, Tiphaine Feltin

Dear Alfred-Almond Alumni Association,
I am sincerely honored to have been selected as a recipient of the 2018 Jim Baker Memorial Sports Camp Award. I am very grateful that you have given me the chance to attend this camp, which will allow me to further improve my soccer skills as an individual and as part of a team. I think it is great that the Alfred-Almond Alumni Association is able to provide this kind of assistance to help all different types of student athletes. Thank you again for selecting me for this award.

Sincerely, Cameron Claire

Dear Alumni from Alfred Almond,
Thank you so much for the Jim Baker Memorial sports Award. I will be using it to attend a tennis camp at Alfred University! I am so excited to go. It sounds like so much fun!

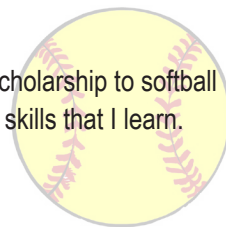

Sincerely, Owen Lawrence, Class of 2024

Alfred - Almond Alumni Association,
Thank you for helping fund my summer tennis camp! I am very excited to learn new skills to help me when I play tennis in 7th grade.

Thanks, Jennie Bensley

Thank you so much for awarding me a scholarship to softball camp. I'm very excited to apply the new skills that I learn.

Sincerely, Olivia Flaitz

A MESSAGE TO THE 50TH YEAR HONORED CLASS OF 1969

By Mike Obuhanich and Holly R. Hogan

"CLASS OF '69 IS FINE"

As we get ready to celebrate our 50 year reunion from the hallowed halls of AACS it is time for us to renew – hopefully face to face – the friendships we cultivated there many years ago.

We had a wonderful gathering 5 years ago attended by many we had not seen in years. As with all classes we have moved on and created lives of our own and spread out around the country.

Those of us who still live in the area hope that our scattered classmates will make an effort to meet with us this July and share stories of our high school days and the lives we have made for ourselves.

If you are unable to attend, we urge you to at least consider paying the $5.00 annual dues to the Alfred-Almond Alumni Association. Out of 64 members of our class only 20 are currently dues paying members. We should be able to do better than that!!!! By paying your dues you will receive a copy of the annual newsletter which is packed with information about Alfred-Almond, the annual reunion and its outstanding alumni.

We are planning on having a class get together on Friday July 19th at 6:30PM at the Terra Cotta Coffeehouse in Alfred. The reunion dinner will be held on Saturday July 20th at the Central Dining Hall on the Alfred State campus. Reservation forms for the reunion dinner will be included in the AAAA newsletter, which will be mailed in May. We are also considering having a picnic on Sunday.

We look forward to seeing you all this summer and hope that all is well with you and your families. Please contact either Holly or I if you have any questions.

Honored Classes 2018 Reunion News

Alfred-Almond Alumni weekend 2018 saw the return of scores of classmates, spouses and guests gathering to celebrate with their classes. While we know of some reunions, there may be others that we have missed. Here is what was reported to the AAAA newsletter staff:

Class of 1958

Class of 1958's 60th year reunion enjoyed a get-together at Fred and Donna Olin's on Big Creek Road, Hornell, on Friday afternoon, July 21, 2018. Held in the loft of the Olin barn, the group was greeted by a huge banner that Fred purchased, welcoming the Class of 1958! A luncheon was provided and we shared pictures and other memorabilia and lots of conversation. Graduating with a class of 35 members, our class president, Edie Monahan, read the names and a moment of silence was held for the eleven deceased classmates.

Later in the evening, the Olin boys' country band played for listening and dancing enjoyment, joined by other AACS alumni and family friends and relatives.

Attending the Friday event were Dick Cott, Alise Ogden Irwin, Ray Dunn, Mig Pierce Amato, Harold Williams, Bev Allen Schmidt, Shirley Watson Morey, Ray Goodridge, Anne Langer Carmen, Edie Allen Monahan, Donna Burdett Ryan, Clifton Woodworth, Fred Olin and Phil Brown, along with spouses and guests.

Representing the class at the Saturday night AA Alumni dinner were Alise Irwin, Ray Dunn and wife Margaret, Harold Williams and wife Rosemary, Fred Olin, Bev Schmidt, Anne Carmen, Edie Monahan and Larry Hendershott, and Donna Ryan.

We were so pleased that we had a really nice attendance for the get-together Friday night and the alumni banquet on Saturday night. We urge AACS alumni to make every effort to return "home" for their reunion events. Time goes by so fast... and it is a blessing to meet with old friends/classmates. The Class of 1958 looks forward to our 65th in 2023!

Class of 1953

The Class of 1953, celebrating their 65th reunion, enjoyed three gatherings prior to the alumni banquet, according to Bob Baker. Friday evening, we met at the Baker home for light refreshments and great conversation---"catching up." On Saturday morning, we enjoyed a great breakfast at Nelson & Amanda Snyder's home--again reminiscing & old times, and again Saturday afternoon at Patty Harvey Curran's new home in Almond for those who could make it. Overall, we had 10 returning (out of 18 surviving). Original class size was 37. This MAY be the largest turnout in the history of AAAA's for a 65th Reunion!! Barb (Weaver) Horton had just returned from "Dollywood" vacationing with her daughter's family. So determined to attend she "was willing to take a taxi from Campbell" (in spite of major health issues)!! Bob Burdick surprised everyone by coming up from West Va. He too was still dealing with debilitating knee problems following a horrific auto accident several years ago! First time in many years. It was truly a blessing for all of us, "just to be together again!"

Honored Classes 2018 Reunion News

Thirty-two members of the great Class of '68, fifteen spouses, one cell-phone attendee (Alan Rough), and 2 "honorary members" (Mike Obuhanich and Gary Ormsby) gathered for the ninth time since 1973: this time to celebrate our 50th reunion.

The weather cooperated beautifully, the sun coming out just in time for our class picnic on Sunday. Traditionally, Curran's pond had been the site for this event, but after the sale of that property, Ron Snyder graciously offered the use of his business facilities at Performance Automotive in Tinkertown. Now that we're "older", we didn't need a volleyball net or pond to swim in, anyways!

Ron and I were thrilled to have such a great turnout, and want to take this opportunity to thank our classmates, some of whom travelled from as far away as Arizona, Kentucky, Texas, and Florida to get here. It's a wonderful thing that so many spouses have become good friends and part of our class. Special thanks to Jay and Carol Simpson, and Anne and Gene Fewster for running errands and doing the setup. Thanks also to Charlie and Linda Emerson for donating tables and chairs for the event. Thanks also to Deb Esposito, for getting the ball rolling, making contact with classmates.

It's hard work, organizing a reunion and getting people to come, but so rewarding. I am proud to belong to such a great group of people. The hardest part of the day was trying to get everyone into a class photo. None of the pictures we took showed everybody, so I cropped and pieced them together for a video that was posted on the AA Alumni Facebook Page. Names of attendees of the picnic are under pictures, but a few are hidden behind others.

Attending the Saturday night banquet, but unable to come to the picnic on Sunday, were MaryLiz Gorton Schwartz, Linda Lawrence Walters, Alice Sick Allen, Sue Stockweather Graves, and Bobby Davison. Class Speaker Anne Mills Fewster gave a wonderful speech, and Linda Walters recited a sweet poem she wrote using memories that classmates sent her. Charlie gave the Invocation.

It's a strange thing, but when we meet again after anywhere from five to 45 years, I don't see the people as they are now (a bit older), I see them as they were during our teenage years. We've all gone our separate ways, but come back to the same roots and to the place that nurtured us during our most informative years. Most of us would agree that we were very lucky to have been brought up in our little communities, lucky to have had the teachers of Alfred Almond during the 60's, and lucky to have the Alumni Association to provide us with a venue for reunions. We should appreciate their hard work, not only in keeping people in contact, but in successfully raising funds to help AA students be themselves, successful.

The Class of 1973's 45th reunion review was submitted by Bill Pulos: Eighteen members were on hand during alumni weekend to enjoy "old friends, new times". Our weekend began at Alfred's Terra Cotta Coffee House owned by our own John Ninos, a member of the AAAA Sports Hall of Fame. We enjoyed a beautiful evening outside on the spacious decks with munchies and beverages. We shared space on the deck with the class of 1983. Both classes had plenty of room and were able to share a bit on common experiences. Our Steve Cornell brought his guitar and as the evening wore on and the memories started to flow, out came the songs and the sing-alongs. Jeff Vagell got on board, Steve loaned him the guitar and further we went with our happy evening. Kathy Boyd Costello got on the internet and we even had some lyrics to follow along with!

Members of the '83 class said the next night at the banquet they particularly enjoyed our rendition of "Gilligan's Island". We closed the place. The next morning promptly (?) at 8:00am, a half dozen of us gathered at John's Collegiate restaurant to enjoy breakfast, more stories and of course the always famous "Jet" coffee! We got a jump on our day, hoping the weather would hold and it did. Although our mothers taught us not to laugh and play at the breakfast table, of course we did in the corner booth. But, no food fights.

Onward at noon to Kim and Kathy Costello's recreation area with pavilion in Karr Valley for our Saturday afternoon class picnic, catered by our Class President and the 1st AAAA Outstanding Service Award recipient Jud Stearns. Always delicious, Jud's barbeque chicken and trimmings always set the stage for eating, talking, eating and more talking. A very nice time in a beautiful setting. We're grateful for our classmates for sharing their skills, business and homes with us. Then it was on to social hour and the all-class banquet at SUNY's dining hall. We all bought raffle tickets and were able to catch-up a bit with other alumni. The time for the social hour always seems short. Dinnertime came and we had the good fortune of again being at the table together. The banquet was well-run and it is always a special time for all of us. Our committee consisted of long-time members Kathy Boyd Costello, Kim Lowrey Gayhart, Terah Soule, Jennie Hanks Wright and Bill Pulos. We worked well together, enjoy each other's company and did our best for our class. Although I can't claim that all of us are "looking forward" to our 50th reunion in 2023, it's likely we'll be on hand with more of our classmates to host a good show.

We all understand we won't have many more times to see each other as a group. Thank you to the AAAA board for continuing our great traditions with alumni weekend!

Class of 1978

WOW... 40 YRS, The class of '78 had some great times back then but more recently with our Sunday get-together to plan for our reunion. We started meeting on Sunday evenings at the Terra Cotta in Alfred to split up the list of classmates trying to locate them, get correct addresses for the database and encourage them to attend the reunion weekend in July. Our Sunday group included: Kelly Snyder Lawrence, Mark Lawrence, Cindy Royston Fraser, Brad Burdick, Paul Gabriel, Mark Green, Lisa Patrick, Steve Reitnauer, Connie Clark Blank, and Debra Clark Tomm. We reminisced about Toronto senior trip, senior play "The Mouse That Roared", and sporting events. Also, how we have lost classmates, Kristi Carpenter Amend, Gary Baker, Steve Richardson, and most recently the passing of Doug Norton and Mark Green.

Thank you to Kelly and Mark Lawrence who opened their beautiful back lawn for a brick oven pizza party. Making the trip to attend the picnic and AACS reunion banquet also included: Randy Gillette, Susan Beasley Mojcik, Rhonda Burdick Bryan, Ellen Ann Coughlin Dillon, Scott Moritz, Mike Wenslow, Chuck

Woodworth, and many spouses.

What a great time visiting with everyone that weekend, planning on Sundays, and hearing from classmates who were unable to attend. It was fun to see or hear from so many and share memories like it was just yesterday we were roaming the halls of AACS. Looking forward to getting together again!

Class of 1983

We met at the Terra Cotta in Alfred on Friday night, sharing the outside decks with the Class of 1973. We enjoyed conversation, food, and drinks on a beautifully warm evening. There were talks of family, friends, happenings in high school, and even some plans for a class cruise in 2019!

On Saturday we met at Foster's Lake for a picnic with more classmates (some that we haven't seen since graduation) and more catching up. Many of us continued reminiscing at the AA Alumni Banquet, where we enjoyed a lovely meal. Overall, we had a total of 12 classmates that joined us.

Class of 1993

The Class of 1993 celebrated their 25th reunion with a few events. We kicked off the weekend Friday evening with a Happy Hour at Muhleisen's. Several of us had some cocktails and talked about what we've been up to. On Saturday, a picnic was held at the Emo's with fun activities to include a rope swing and zipline. The pond was enjoyed by the kids and maybe even a little more by some adults (Steve Caponey). The old yearbooks and many photos were shared and reminisced about, with fun stories to be told. Everyone met later for dinner at Club 57. To conclude the weekend, some met for breakfast at The Jet, before we had to go our separate ways. A big "Thank You" to Heidi (Dobson) Markel for putting together a great weekend!

KARL L. GRANTIER, '55, FRIEND OF VETERANS, PASSES AWAY

ALMOND - Karl L. Grantier, 83, a lifelong resident of Almond and member of the AACS Class of 1955, passed away on April 23, 2019 at Strong Memorial Hospital in Rochester.

After graduation Karl enlisted in the U.S. Air Force. He suffered from third degree burns on 37% of his body during an accidental fire on the flight line on Oct. 29, 1957 at Moody Air Force Base, Valdosta, Georgia; after which he spent 10 months in the hospital at Lackland Air Force base in San Antonio, Texas. He was honorably discharged from the Air Force on March 31, 1960 with 70% disability, upgraded to 100% disability in 2012. Karl was employed by Rogers Machine Works in Alfred and Worthington in Wellsville. In subsequent years, he drove tractor trailer for different companies and bus for Alfred State College (ACES). Most recently, he owned and operated KLG Trucking from 1992 until his retirement in 2015.

Karl was the Commander of the Alfred Post 370 American Legion for 22 years, a member of the AMVETS in Cuba, Sampson Airforce Base Vets Association, where he served the first president, and was a member of the committee to establish the National Cemetery at Sampson. For many years, he served on the Alfred-Almond Alumni Association board of directors as chairman of the veterans project. In 2004 Karl undertook a 10-year project to recognize all AACS veterans. Today, nine handsome walnut plaques bearing the names of nearly 500 alumni are located in the alumni hallway. Also displayed on special plaques are the names of 27 AACS veterans who received heroic medals in the line of duty. Karl's decades-long passion for the care and recognition of veterans also motivated him to introduce the Hometown Heroes Banner project to Almond, offering families and friends the opportunity to sponsor large street banners for their veteran friends and family. To date, during the spring and summer months, there are more than 100 banners which line Main Street and other roads in the Town of Almond, honoring the service of local veterans. Karl was also a member of the Almond Volunteer Fire Department for over 50 years.

Notice of Annual Meeting - Friday, July 20, 2018

The AAAA annual meeting and election will be take place on July 19, 2019 at 3 p.m. at the Alfred State College Central Dining Hall.

The board encourages interested members to run for election to the board. This year six (6) of fifteen (15) AAAA board member openings must be filled by election at our annual meeting per our by-laws put in place last year. The term for each elected board member is three (3) years. The seats up for election are held by incumbents, Don Jefferds, Debi Kenney, Lois Curran, Brooke Harris, Butch Lorow, and Mike Obuhanich.

The requirements for a board member include willingness to help, good-heartedness toward our Alfred-Almond community/alumni and discretion. The board members compose the annual newsletter and perform all duties to host our wonderful annual banquet. Importantly, we are the fiduciaries of the alumni funds which are used every year to award AAAA scholarships to AACS graduating seniors.

We meet every month; the meetings are usually 1½ hours. An ability to attend nine meetings out of twelve is required. While the officers and committee chairs perform yeoman service, we include each board member on committees and urge all members to do their best to support our organization.

If you are interested in running for a board seat, please contact President Lisa Patrick, porterlm@twc.com or Corresponding Secretary Donna Ryan, dryan14804@gmail.com.

Mission Statement

The Alfred Almond Alumni Association (AAAA) is an independent organization committed to promoting fellowship with and among current and future graduates. The Association, recognizing the rich legacy and the excellence of education at Alfred-Almond Central School (AACS), will encourage good relationships among its members, instill a long-term loyalty among fellow alumni and dedicate to the name, reputation and philosophy of Alfred-Almond Central School, its programs and activities.

Vision

- Promote excellence in academic achievement, good citizenship, and leadership among AACS students.
- Cultivate students to ensure participation in the Alumni Association following graduation.
- Develop the association to be financially self-sufficient and fiscally responsible.
- Financially assist AACS graduates in achieving their higher education goals with scholarships.
- Financially assist AACS undergraduates in attending sports, technology, and arts camps to help them with their educational success.

Goals

- Host an annual alumni reunion and encourage social events, activities and class reunions for alumni of Alfred-Almond Central School and its predecessors, the former Alfred High School and Almond High School.
- Generate and maintain the active interest of all alumni as a support organization with diversity and pride in the heritage of our alma mater.
- Keep members informed of school activities, alumni activities, and other newsworthy activities pertaining to alumni members and the association.
- Create and maintain a working database of all alumni members with viable contact information to assist in the establishment and organization of class reunions including help to locate "missing" classmates and providing current contact information for alumni reunion committees.
- Raise funds and administer the handling of scholarship and camp donations. Oversee selection of recipients who apply for awards as per guidelines established by the AAAA Board.

The 1940 Society - Estate planning

In 2017, AAAA announced the beginning of a new alumni support program. The Board created an alumni program entitled "The 1940 Society." The program is named in honor of the 1st year of business at AACS, namely 1940. The purpose of the program is to encourage all alumni to consider including the Alfred Almond Alumni Association in their Will and Estate planning. This program seeks to honor and recognize those thoughtful alumni who promise special gifts to the AAAA in their Estate plans.

Donors can decide to express their ever-lasting gratitude for their time at AACS by including the association in their estate planning. Membership includes all those alumni that pledge in writing to include the AAAA as a specific beneficiary in their Wills in the amount of at least $1,000.00, a very significant gift to the AAAA. We of course are humbled and very grateful!

We encourage all alumni to consider making the AAAA a part of their Estate plan. Your continuing generosity is the lifeblood of the association. For many, this is an opportunity to give financial support and allows time to assist donors in making future gifts. Of course, we always encourage consults with your advisors as we can't give legal or tax advice. However, we are happy to answer questions and provide the necessary form to use. The AAAA will promote the program by listing the names of all the members who wish to be known in the annual newsletter.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR CONTINUED SUPPORT OF YOUR AAAA!

YOU CAN HELP THE AAAA BY USING YOUR COMPANY'S MATCHING GIFT PROGRAM

Donors / employees go through the following three-step process to submit matching gifts:

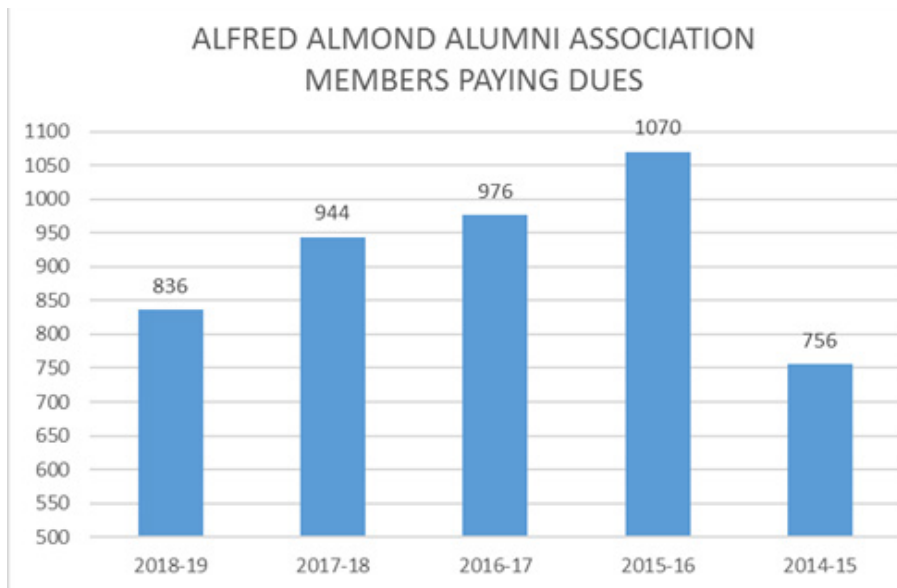

1. Make a donation to the Alfred Almond Alumni Association (we are 501 (c) (3) organization)
2. Determine if your employer offers a matching gift programs.
3. Locate and return the appropriate matching gift form to your company.

When the matching gift form is received by the AAAA, we will verify that you actually made the donation and submit the form back to the company. Then they send their matching gift to us!

It's easy— simple – but we need to have YOU, our donors, take that step of checking with your HR office and see if the matching gift program is in place.

Help us stay connected....

The Alfred Almond Alumni Association board secures funds to meet our objectives through membership dues and support. It is important to remember that the primary goal of the Association is to provide ways for alumni to connect with each other. Over the past few years, we have seen a decline in the number of members who pay their annual dues. We hit a record 1070 members in 2015-16 but have seen that decline each year since to 836 this past year.

One hundred percent of your Alumni Dues ($5 donation) directly support the annual "Blue and Gold" newsletter. Each year the board must decide whether or not to send the newsletter to honored class members. If you are an honored class this year, you received our newsletter. In the future if you do not pay your annual dues, you will not receive the newsletter. It is important keep up-to-date with alumni news and see the exciting things taking place at Alfred Almond Central School – please pay your membership dues. Help us re-build our valuable alumni membership!

We are encouraging more of you to pay the annual dues 4/1/2019-3/31/2020

There have been many generous alumni who have established memorial scholarships in family names as well as those donating to support our Alumni Founders fund. The donations into these funds assist in awarding annual scholarships to approximately 20 seniors attending college each year. We hope you will contribute to your alumni association, the Alfred Almond students deserve your help. Thanks for supporting your Alumni Association and all of our worthy endeavors!

About the AAAA Scholarships

At present, Alfred Almond Central School (AACS) alumni and friends have the opportunity to donate to several funds which are then used to provide scholarships and awards to AACS students. Generous gifts and donations assist in making great opportunities happen. The following describes our funds:

Alumni Association Founders - Jean Hanks Palmiter/Dale Lorow Memorial Scholarship

These scholarships evolved from the very first awards that the Alumni Association presented back in the 50s and 60s, when plaques and a $25 savings bond were presented to two graduating seniors in memory of Jean Hanks Palmiter, '44, a driving force in the formation of the Alumni Association. These awards were increased to $250 each, and in 2001, the AAAA was able to present three graduates with $1,000 each. Just fifteen years later, in 2018, seniors each received $2,000!

In 2018, this scholarship was renamed the Alumni Association Founders Scholarship to honor Palmiter and Lorow who kept the Association going for decades. Any AACS senior who has maintained at least an 80% average throughout their high school years, who has attended AACS two out of four high school years, and is planning to attend college as a full time student is eligible to apply.

The Juanita Whitaker Pulos Memorial Scholarship

This scholarship was set up by her sons, William, '73 and Robert, '75 in 2006 to honor their mother, an AACS music teacher who made a lasting impression in this area for nearly four decades. It recognized a student who was pursuing further study in music, visual arts, or theater/drama. In 2016, the contract was amended to extend the program as the original ten year contract had expired. Future years, through the generosity of the Pulos brothers and other donors, the scholarship will be given to two students who have participated in one or more fields of vocal music, instrumental music, visual arts, theater/drama and intend to pursue those fields. If no such candidate exists, in priority listing, those pursuing teaching, social sciences, and liberal arts at a four year university will be eligible.

The Rachael Amato Baldo/Tom Murphy Memorial Scholarship

This scholarship was established in 2010 by Dr. Glen Feltham, '84 to honor the memory of Rachael and Tom, who were members of his Class of 1984. A student who is entering a two or four year college program of health care/health science study and expresses a desire to major or minor in one of those fields included but not limited to nursing, medicine, athletic training, dentistry, physical therapy, speech therapy, exercise science, biological or neuro sciences is eligible to apply for this award. It is given to one student annually, and is funded by generous contributions by Dr. Feltham and by alumni donors.

The Greg Norton Memorial Scholarship

Initiated with the academic year ending June 2012 and initially funded by Scott Yelle, '86, this scholarship is in memory of Greg Norton, '86 a fine athlete who was well liked by all. Greg lost his life in a car crash in August, 1988. This scholarship recognizes one AACS senior who participated in two or three sports for four consecutive years, and who displayed outstanding leadership qualities such as honesty, integrity, courage, a sense of humor, charisma, competence and self-discipline. Student applicants must have a minimum of two letters of support to qualify. This scholarship is funded annually by Scott Yelle and by alumni donors.

The Anne Wenslow Memorial Scholarship

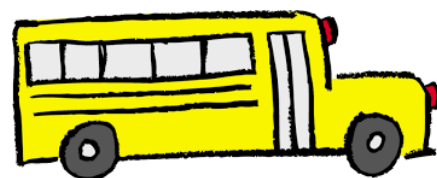

Established as a new program in June 2016, the Anne Wenslow Memorial scholarship was initially funded by her family and matching corporate gifts. Anne was active in the Alfred community for many years as a 4-H and Boy Scout leader, counselor, tutor, and a member of multiple not-for-profit boards. Her greatest contributions to the community were her many acts of support and encouragement outside of official roles. This scholarship is awarded annually to one senior who has committed to outstanding service in the Alfred and/or Almond community outside of school-sponsored functions. Student applicants must have a minimum of two letters of support to qualify.

Jim Baker/Arlene Roberts Summer Camps

The donation form also provides for alumni to contribute to Summer Camps. Summer Camp donations are used annually to assist underclassman who wish to attend an athletic or fine arts/technology camp. Students must fill out an application that is presented to the AAAA board.

Undesignated Funds

Undesignated funds are used in several ways, including supplementing scholarship and camp awards funds, and covering other operating costs.

BUS TRANSPORTATION FOR BANQUET ATTENDEES:

Thanks to AACS District Superintendent Rich Calkins, a school bus will be available to give you a ride from the campus parking lots to Central Dining Hall. Just park your car and watch for the bus!
